Defendant

STATEMENT IN OPEN COURT

Alex Cochrane, Hamlins LLP, Solicitor for the Claimant

1. My Lord, in this action for misuse of private information, I appear on behalf of the Claimant, Ms Anouska de Georgiou. My learned friend, Ben Silverstone, appears on behalf of the Defendant, News Group Newspapers Limited.
2. The Claimant is an actress, model and socialite. She appeared in the film Alfie, alongside Jude Law, and in popular television programmes. She has also had a very successful modelling career. As a result, she was a person of interest to the press.
3. The Defendant was the publisher of the News of the World which, until its closure in July 2011, was the UK's biggest selling Sunday newspaper with a very considerable readership in this jurisdiction. The Defendant was, and remains, the publisher of The Sun which, to this day, enjoys a substantial circulation and readership in this jurisdiction by way of hard copy sales of the newspaper and via its website.

4. In May 2020, the Claimant issued proceedings against the Defendant. The Claimant claimed that her voicemail messages were intercepted by the Defendant's journalists and that, as a result, those journalists were privy to private and confidential voicemail messages left on her mobile telephone by others. The Claimant also claimed that the Defendant had unlawfully obtained her personal information by deception.
5. The Claimant identified a number of articles which she claimed contained her private information which were published by the Defendant's newspapers between 1997 and 2010. During this time, the Claimant used her voicemail extensively and she would regularly receive and leave voicemail messages.
6. The Claimant further claimed that as a result of the Defendant's publications, she became suspicious as to who was the source of the private information published by the Defendant's newspapers and it was alleged that the publication of the articles generated distrust which impacted her relationships and caused her considerable distress.
7. The Claimant is pleased to confirm she has accepted the Defendant's offer to resolve her claim on terms confidential between the parties and which involve the payment of damages by the Defendant to her as well as her reasonable legal costs of bringing the claim. The Defendant has also provided appropriate undertakings to the Court and the Claimant and has agreed to join in this statement to apologise publicly to the Claimant for the distress caused to her by the invasion of her privacy by individuals working for or on behalf of the News of the World. The Defendant makes no admission of liability in relation to the Claimant's allegations of voicemail interception and/or other unlawful information gathering at The Sun.

Ben Silverstone, Counsel for the Defendant

8. My Lord, on behalf of the Defendant, I confirm everything my Friend has said.
9. The Defendant is here today, through me, to offer its sincere apologies to the Claimant for the distress caused to her by the invasion of her privacy by individuals working for or on behalf of the News of the World. The Defendant acknowledges that such activity should never have taken place, and that it had no right to intrude into the private life of the Claimant in this way.

Alex Cochrane, Hamlins LLP, Solicitor for the Claimant

10. My Lord, in light of the order that has been made, and this public statement, the Claimant considers that the matter is now concluded.
